From The Ministers Desk

Hi to you all,

By now for most of us the year has well and truly begun, the holidays have gone, interrupted by this thing called 'work'. When we think about work, how do we picture it – a necessary evil that pays the bills or something else? More importantly, how does God see our work and what does the Bible say about employment? After today and in the coming weeks I'd like to spend time thinking and talking about "Where's God on a Monday?"

Alongside this please keep in mind that the Cromwell Presbyterian Church 150th Anniversary is fast approaching. This is a significant milestone and an opportunity to celebrate God's ongoing faithfulness. Saturday evening is a special dinner and Sunday morning is a celebration service. If you haven't had a chance to sign up for the dinner there is still time to do so.

God bless,
Reece.

"No Plans To Quit" Book Launch

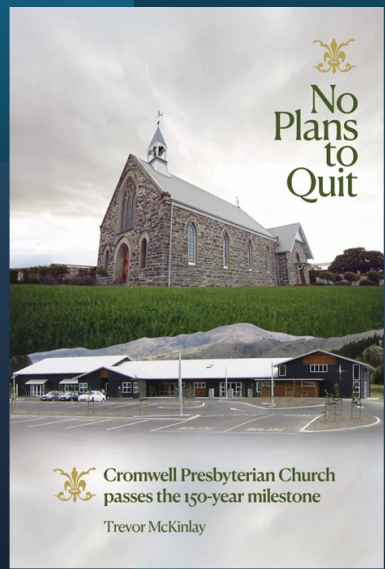

Cromwell Presbyterian Church
10 Elspeth Street, Cromwell

Thursday 20th February at 7.30pm

This is by no means a dull history.
Come and find out why!

Author Trevor McKinlay will make a presentation about the book, and there will be time for questions and discussion, followed by a light supper

All welcome

Big Change 4 Small People (Milk Bottle Collection)

January's collection went towards the work Youngs left behind in Malawi - printing Sunday School Teacher lesson books (in their own language). February's collection is going to help some of the children the Hansen family were working with in Hungary.

Children's Activities

Available at the back of the auditorium each
Sunday through to mid February.

Parents please supervise your children.
